Spectator point 3

First car due approx 6:25 pm

To get to spectator point 3

From the oval drive out of the gates and you will have to turn right heading back towards Eudunda. Travel along the main road for approx. 800 m and turn left (sign post Bower 35) then straight away turn right. You should be on a gravel road now and drive down here for about 500 m to a fork in the road (That is a fork not a spoon) you should keep left here. Travel along this road for approx. 4.6 km and go straight on at the cross roads then another 1.3 km cross road straight on and again 4 km five road junction straight on then 1.9 km this shall bring you to the Spectator point. Please park before the cross roads that will be roped off and obey the officials at this area. Enjoy the camp fire that will be going. Once the all of the cars have passed this point please feel free to go back to the oval and see the cars after the rally and talk to some of the competitors there. The bar and canteen will be open so have a drink and something to eat. Thank you for spectating at the Rodertstown Rally and if you would like to get into rallying please talk to an official or a competitor and they maybe able to help you.
